KEY Discovery to Acquire WarRoom's Paper Discovery Business

Boston, MA — FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

March 2, 2020 -- KEY Discovery has announced the purchase of the paper discovery division of WarRoom Document Solutions. Effective immediately, all accounts will transition and be managed by KEY Discovery.

"We have always had a great relationship with WarRoom as a respected business competitor," said Tom Washburn, CEO and Partner at KEY Discovery. "We are excited to add these accounts to our portfolio and know we will manage the transition seamlessly."

WarRoom Document Solutions' customers will be welcomed and handled with KEY's industry known world class customer service. KEY Discovery will manage all paper services encompassed in the litigation support life cycle. This includes scanning, printing, copying, binding, appendix and brief services, trial boards, trial exhibit printing and labeling, trial presentations, trial technicians, bates stamping, OCR, transactional processing of files, and oversize scanning and duplication.

WarRoom has been a trusted resource since 1999 and KEY Discovery is proud to provide the excellent service their clients have come to expect.

Founded in 2008, KEY Discovery is a leader in the litigation support community. The company offers a wide range of services including paper discovery, ediscovery, trial support and court reporting services.
